About the District

Without a doubt, West Clermont School District is experiencing one of the most exciting times in the district's history for its 8,200 students, their families and communities. Thus, it is quickly becoming a "District of Choice" in the Greater Cincinnati area.

Located thirty minutes east of downtown Cincinnati, this fast growing suburban community enjoys easy access to all a metropolitan area offers including numerous colleges and universities, fine arts, college and professional sports, recreational facilities. Crossed north-south by Interstate 275 and east-west by State Routes 32 and 125, the district covers fifty-four miles including Union Township, Amelia Village and portions of Batavia, Monroe, Ohio and Pierce Townships.

In the fall of 2017, the District will consolidate its two high schools (Amelia and Glen Este) into the new, 2,500 student, West Clermont High School. This state-of-the art building will serve as the hub of activity for the communities the District serves. Through partnerships, the building contains a membership driven Mercy HealthPlex and medical office space to serve the health needs of the community at large. Amelia and Glen Este Middle Schools will also be consolidated into one, completely renovated, facility.
